ESG HIRES CORPORATE SAFETY DIRECTOR

DULUTH, GA (MARCH 23, 2007)—The ESG Family of Companies is proud to announce Darrel West has joined the ESG organization as Corporate Safety Director.

In this position Mr. West will be developing and implementing an extensive occupational safety program for the ESG Family of Companies. “Occupational safety has always been a top priority within the ESG organization and with Darrel on-board, we are elated to bring these programs to an exciting new level” said Clay Sykes, P.E., President, ESG Operations, Inc.

The focus on the safety of ESG employees, their partners and the public is and has always been paramount. ESG regards the regulations established by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, as well as other federal, state and local safety, health and environmental laws, codes, regulations and standards, as minimum standards for the Company and will continually strive to exceed these requirements.

Prior to joining ESG, Mr. West served as the Director of Environmental, Health Safety and Security for Indianapolis Water where he was responsible for implementing environmental, health safety and security. While Mr. West’s accomplishments in Indianapolis are numerous, he is particularly proud of having successfully reduced the OSHA recordable incident rate in Indianapolis by 74% in only three years. Prior to Indianapolis, Mr. West was an Environmental, Health, Safety and Security Manager for US Filter managing the EHS&S programs for multiple business units in the Mid-Atlantic region of the United States.
